

Health and Safety Policy

Health and Safety at Work Act 1974

This is the Health and Safety Policy of: Abbeydale Vetlink Veterinary Training Ltd

General Statement of Policy

This policy will apply to full time and part time staff whilst working for Abbeydale Vetlink Veterinary Training Ltd and to students/apprentices. The policy will be reviewed by the Directors on a regular basis in order to allow for changes in legislation, which are applicable to Health and Safety.

We are committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of our employees and apprentices, so far as is reasonably practicable, and recognise that the effective management of health and safety is an integral part of our overall business performance. We also fully accept our responsibility for other persons such as contractors and visitors who may be affected by our activities.

The objectives of the Policy are to ensure that our statutory obligations are met, but these are regarded as minimum standards to be exceeded wherever possible. We will continually strive to improve our management of workplace risks.

We will:

- Complete a risk assessment using the HSE Health and Safety checklist for classrooms
- Ensure there is adequate control of the health and safety risks arising from our work activities.
- Provide and maintain systems that are safe and without risk to health for:
 - work
 - equipment
 - working conditions
- Implement safe practices and procedures in connection with the handling and use of hazardous substances.
- Ensure that
 - all employees are competent to carry out their duties
 - provide new recruits, and existing employees with
 - appropriate information
 - instruction
 - training and supervisionso they can cope with the particular health and safety aspects and/or responsibilities associated with their job and place of work.
- Provide and maintain adequate facilities and arrangements to enable all employees and their representatives to raise issues of health and safety.
- Consult our employees on matters affecting their health and safety.
- Provide adequate facilities and arrangements for employees' welfare at work.
- Make regular safety inspections and set safety standards.

We will ensure that adequate time and finances are committed in pursuance of these aims and, provide Competent Persons, including the use of experts as necessary.

Whilst the onus of Health and Safety falls primarily on Management, all employees have legal obligations to take all reasonable care to protect themselves and anyone else affected by their acts or omissions.

EMPLOYEES MUST CO-OPERATE BY:

- Working safely and efficiently to approved methods
- Working with regard to the safety of themselves and others
- Adhering to the Company's safety procedures and rules
- Reporting all accidents in the proper way and co-operating in the investigation of accidents and measures taken to prevent recurrence
- Reporting possible hazards, defects or dangers
- Staff visiting veterinary practices must do so only by prior appointment.
- On visits to practices staff should be aware of the fire procedures in the practice and designated escape routes.
- Staff must follow any code of practice health and safety in use in that practice.

The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment of management and employees at all levels. Full details of the organisation and arrangements for health and safety are set out in separate sections of the Safety Policy document.

This policy will be regularly monitored to ensure that the objectives are achieved. It will be reviewed annually, and, updated in the light of legislative or organisational changes.

STUDENTS/APPRENTICES

Abbeydale Vetlink Veterinary Training Ltd will, as is reasonably practicable, ensure the safety of students and trainees under our control whilst undergoing training on government or privately funded training programmes.

We will ensure safe systems of working within our own premises.

Assessments of risk to students and apprentices health and safety will take into account their lack of experience, absence of awareness of existing or potential risks and physical ability.

We will ensure that any death, injury, case of disease or dangerous occurrence concerning students and trainees is recorded and/or reported to the appropriate authorities immediately by telephone and in writing within seven days.

We will ensure that instruction in safe working practices is an important part of all aspects of training. We will ensure that students/trainees receive a health and safety induction to the premises at the start of the course.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR ACCIDENTS OR ILL-HEALTH

Abbeydale will provide a suitably stocked and maintained first aid kit with the location clearly signposted. A trained first aider will always be on site to deal with any acute illness/accident. Access to an Automated External Defibrillator (AED) is provided.

First aid arrangements will be clearly communicated to all staff, visitors and apprentices both verbally and on posters around the classrooms.

Abbeydale also keeps records of emergency contact details, existing medical conditions and allergies on file for each staff member and apprentice.
